My dear Mr Garrison

I am greatly obliged to save me the trouble of conveying my very precious purchase to Weymouth as I was a little puzzled how to proceed in such a weighty matter. Your father did write to me
just as he was leaving Boston referring me to you for making the necessary arrangements, but I was not able to go to town then & did not know exactly how to express the "Provisional Press" & this delayed me. Your kind letter has relieved my little uncertainty & I must be so say. The Baker's Weymouth express will bring them safely to Weymouth & to our door. I do not send the money which is lying in my clerk's hands about my your care. I am

sincerely, & truly
to the post as I have found it unsafe, but I shall soon be in town myself & will see that the amount is placed in your hands or Mr Phelps's, which will be, I suppose, the same thing.

I hope you have got
news of your father & that all your circle
are well & enjoying this cool season. We are
we have at Weymouth
as well off as for me at Nahant or Woburn
of our always give us plenty

To see any of your family here

With kindest

regards to all

believe me

Very Dear Mr Garrison

Very truly yours

Caroline Weston

P.S.

perhaps the books
and letters be directed to
